That Sweetest Flower—

Daphne cneorum, or Garland Flower

OF really delightful fragrance, heliotrope coming nearest to it, this charming prostrate evergreen shrub is excellently adapted for a great variety of uses. As a dwarf border plant, or for massing in the rockery, it has no equal. Pink floral clusters during May-June and again during August-September.

The plants we offer are exceptionally symmetrical, nursery-grown specimens which, due to repeated transplanting, have a fine, compact root system. The larger plants come with ball of earth, properly burlapped (B&B) and can be shipped any distance with the perfect assurance of safe arrival.
